

C.V. Colonel István TALIÁN

Editor, National Security review magazine

DOB: November 11, 1966

Positions:

2018 - Editor, National Security Review magazine

2014 – 2017: Defence, military and air attaché, Austria, Czech Republic, Slovakia

2011 – 2013: Defence, military and air attaché, India, Bangladesh

2009 – 2011: Defence, military and air attaché, Czech Republic, the Netherlands, Belgium, Luxemburg

2005 – 2009: Defence, military and air attaché, Greece

2003 – 2005: Representative of the Military Intelligence Office (MIO) to the Ministry of Economy, Committee of Military Technology Export-Import

2001 – 2003. Military Representative of NATO to Albania

1999 – 2001: Staff positions, Military Intelligence Office

1998 – 1999: Aide-de-Camp of the Commander of the Hungarian Engineer Contingent, SFOR, Bosnia-Herzegovina

1996 – 2000: military language proofer at the ELTE University's Language Examination Centre Budapest and Debrecen University

1988 – 1993: military service; platoon and company level positions.

Education:

2021 – 2023: Higher Military Leaders' Course (DSIS), University of Public Service, Budapest

1993 – 1996: Army and Defence Staff Courses, Miklós Zrínyi National Defence University, Budapest

1991 – 1992: Armor Officers Advanced Course, US Army Armor School, Ft. Knox, KY, USA

1985 – 1988: Lajos Kossuth Military College (officers' basic training), Szentendre

Languages:

- English advanced level (C1); STANAG 4444
- French advanced level (C1)
- German advanced level (C1); STANAG 2222
- Russian advanced level (C1)
- Albanian advanced level (mark 9 on a scale of 10, State University of Tirana, Albania)

Others:

- divorced with 2 sons, István (21) and Márton (17)